Then he dusts him off with a ed to be unquestionable. blacking brush. Then he polishes him with a rake. Then he whirls him about and asks "Now isn't he beautiful?" That's reconstruction over and over again. Congress takes a State and knocks it down. Then it sets it up. Then it setubs it with colored suffrage. Then it polishes it with bayonets. Then it dusts it with quartial law. Then, finally it it goes Radical, like Mississippi, it says "Now, isn't "At lieautiful."

POLITICT IN GEORGIA. -- A Georgia journal, which professes to be thoroughly familiar with Lemen and things political in that State, gives us -2614 this opinion of the ultra party there: "Take the history of the ultra party in Georgia for the year 1869, and the calendar of Newgate from the first page down to the present contains the history of no greater criminals than the leaders of this party. Perjury, robbery, fraud; falsehood, plunder, persecution, assas sination, rapine, and every species of villainy has marked their course." If we deduct thirty per cent. of this as prejudice—a deduction too in relation to measures used in said city.

them, at one period or another in his life, there seems to have been but one lady, out side of his own relatives to whom he left any recognition of his affectionate devotions. Il he had done as much for the two women in Rhode Island, and the three women in Massa chusetts, and the four women in Maine, who say he loved them, as he did for Mrs. John Wood, in leaving her $50,000, they would in that case have more reason to boast of their distinguished conquest-though, perhaps, they would be less likely to do so.
